Little Locals.

S. L. Peeler spent Tuesday in Nashville.

J. C. Whitfield of Holladay was in the city last Friday.

C. H. Cowell made a flying trip to Westport this week.

Hon. Joe F. Odle was in Nashville one day this week.

Mrs. Emma Hubbs has returned from a visit at Big Sandy.

Roy R. Melton left Tuesday for Clark to be gone a week.

Henry Hall spent a few days in Martin with friends last week.

Mrs. Frank T. Woods of McKeezie is up on a visit to relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. G. P. Hicks spent a few days in Nashville this week.

Hon. D. B. Thomas is spending a few days in Nashville this week.

Dr. W. P. McGill was called to Eva Monday on professional business.

Joab Cowell is teaching a singing school at the Methodist Church this week.

The attention of the Street Committee is called to a bad wash near T. J. Lowry's.

Miss Brownie Dardin has gone to Obion to visit her sister, Mrs. Arch Townsend.

Dr. and Mrs. Russell Atkins of Union City were here Saturday, returning Sunday.

S. L. Peeler and Joe F. Odle were in Jackson on professional business Saturday.

C. H. Sullivan, R. G. Hudson and W. W. Whitfield were in Nashville this week.

Mrs. Arco Robinson and children are visiting relatives in the Cross Roads community.

Ridgling horses castrated and insured to live by Farley & Fisher, veterinarians, Paducah, Ky.

Miss Bettie Boswell has accepted a position with a leading milliner of Huntingdon, and left for that place yesterday.

Joe F. Odle has been invited to deliver a literary address at the closing of the Cades High School in Gibson County in this month.

E. W. Hall, of Carroll County, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Cowell, since about the first of last November, returned home this week.

The entertainment and oysters supper given by the Ladies' Aid Society last Thursday evening was a pronounced success. The receipts amounted to about $47; expenses, about $14.

Rev. T. C. McKelvy, pastor, will speak on "The Temptations of Jesus" at the 11 a. m. service at the Methodist Church next Sunday. His topic at 7 p. m. will be "Two Kinds of Prayer." He extends a cordial, hearty invitation to everybody to come to both services.

W. A. Bell and R. E. McGill have returned from Yuma, where they closed a very successful school last week, in fact, we learn by grapevine telegraph that it was one of the best schools ever taught at that place. They are young men of push and hustle, and deserve all that comes their way.

We are indebted to our friend, Walter Lynch, for a copy of the Manila Times, one of the leading newspapers published in the Philippines. Walter is on the Manila police force, and we judge from the monthly report of the chief of police that our friend has to hustle rather lively occasionally for one of his avoirdupois.

A communication was received from Holladay, route 3, on Friday last, when we usually go to press Thursday night. We are always glad to have your letters, but they must be in the office by Tuesday to insure publication. We were glad to receive a number of the letters on Monday this week. A letter from Rocky Ridge is declined, as we could not make out name of the writer. Correspondents are requested not to detach signature from letter should they wish it published. We do not publish the names of correspondents.

ATKINS-MAIDEN.

The Atkins-Maiden nuptials took place Saturday evening among the interesting events of the month in Camden's social circles. The contracting parties were Miss Corn Maiden and Ralph F. Atkins and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Arco Robinson, pastor of the Camden Circuit.

The bride is a daughter of Captain and Mrs. W. F. Maiden, and is a young lady of much beauty and accomplishments and very popular with the young people. The groom is from Kansas, and is a brother of Dr. Russell Atkins, who made his home among us the greater part of the past year.

The newly married couple left Sunday evening for Udall, Kan., where they will make their home, stopping at Union City, St. Louis and other points while en route west. The couple have the best wishes of a host of friends for a long life of happiness.

Book Lovers' Club.

The Book Lovers' Club met with Mrs. J. V. Travis Wednesday afternoon in regular meeting with a full attendance. The meeting was very interesting and highly entertaining, Mrs. Travis being a delightful and clever hostess, and all had looked forward to the meeting and entered heartily into all its details.

"Grief" being the topic for discussion, all members responded to roll call with a quotation on this topic. Interesting papers were read by Mrs. J. H. Jordan and Mrs. D. B. Thomas, after which a general discussion was had, all the members submitting a thought on the question, either from experience or observation. The committee for the selection of books not being ready to report, were granted until the next meeting when its report will be submitted.

Mrs. J. H. Jordan presided over the deliberations and discussion, and after the routine business had been concluded delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Ethel Travis. The next meeting will be with Mrs. D. B. Thomas on March 13. The meeting falling on the 13th, the topic for discussion will be "Superstition."

D. H. Franks and family visited E. M. Franks and family Saturday.

Miss Bevie Sanders was a guest of Misses Addie and Esther Franks Monday.

The school at this place is progressing nicely. It will close next Friday week.

Miss Arrie Pettygrew says she was quite smitten while a young man was here on a visit.

There was a large attendance at the Farmers' Union rally at Cross Roads last week. John Cowell delivered the welcome address, which was responded to by Young Kee. Mr. Matlock of McEwen and some others addressed the assembly. Dinner was served on the ground, and there was an abundance of good things to eat, while good singing and splendid humor characterized the gathering.

Mrs. Claude Devault and Mrs. Burton Dobson were the guests of Mrs. G. T. Sarrett one day last week.

The worst enemy man ever had is the man who stole his time, and assured him he could regain it in the future. A day once lost is lost forever!

How manifestly does it appear the part of wisdom to improve time. The wisdom of improving it will be much more manifest when light of eternity dawns upon us.

How great the folly and wickedness of employing time unprofitably. We sometimes hear men speak of killing time! What a phrase. Sinners plunge into their amusements to kill time. Alas, those who kill time secure for themselves a miserable eternity.
